RECKONING: A Web Series in 8 Episodes

Work has started on the CG and we have begun editing. Episode 1 is complete. We need to tweek the sound a bit in a couple of places and a few small lighting fixes. But for the most part it's done. All that's left is to lay down the music track. We will be looking to add original music to the score. The plan is to incorporate public domain music into the soundtrack. For the first episode we are looking at the following piece:

STEAMWORLD ENTERS THE COLCHESTER 60 HR. FILM CHALLENGE

Earlier this month we had the opportunity to take part in an international 60 hour Film Challenge. Still awaiting the results, we were excited and pleased to take part in the challenge with 800 other teams. It was a fun little weekend event and we are very pleased with the way our film turned out,. We had hail, pouring rain, high winds and bitter cold while on location but everyone pushed through despite the challenges of the weather.

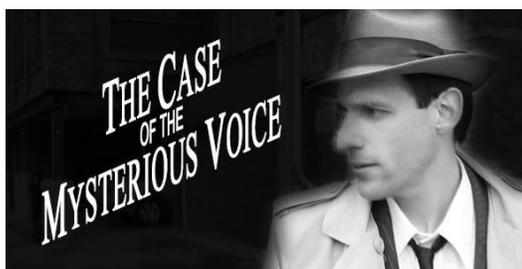

While we did not get shortlisted, we are thankful to our cast (Greg Allen, Julia Ulmer, Joey Ulmer, Lena Booth, Danny Dorion and Brian Dorion as well as out fledgling Director Cheri Booth. You can find our Film at : <https://vimeo.com/groups/60hourfilmchallenge/videos/108069979>

We also want to give a shout out and recognition to Emily Schooley and her team who also entered the challenge. Her film can be found at : <https://vimeo.com/groups/60hourfilmchallenge/videos/108084472>

CALL FOR WRITERS AND CREATIVE CONTENT

Hello everybody,

Adam here again, after to getting together and talking to a few people I have helped to found Herald Media. We are a small local film production that has begun work on our new project. It is a story of feminism and true gender equality. Feminism always talks about women being equal to men, women doing everything that men can, and this is incredibly important for our society to advance. Equally important is men being equal to women, men doing everything that women can. Throughout our next project we will be shining light on the inequalities placed on both genders by society.

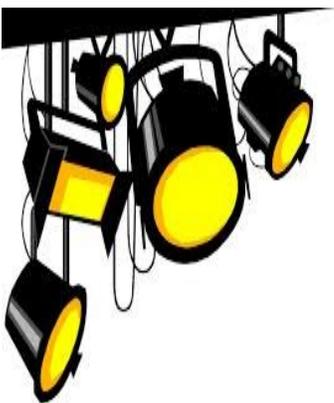

We are looking for volunteers to help write, act, build sets, edit, do make-up, lightning, sound and camera work. If you want to help and are unsure you are able to, let us know and we will always have something for you. Despite the seriousness of the topic, we want to keep the atmosphere light and friendly. The project will be two days a month, on a Saturday or Sunday; starting between 10 and 12 am, running for 4 to 6 hours.

FEATURING THIS MONTH: BRIAN DORION PHOTOGRAPHY

Hi I'm Brian Dorion, most of you who have been involved with one of Danny's project will know that I am her husband. I've been interested in photography for quite a while, but never did too much with film. Once digital began to get popular, I picked up a Canon point and shoot but was always frustrated by how hard it was to get it to do what I wanted. The endless wait for the camera to actually take a picture meant that anything but a still life was a real crap shoot for me. Once we decided on a trip to Morocco, I decided that it was time to buy a DSLR and I haven't looked back.

One of the things that I have done is start Brian Dorion Photography. It's an opportunity to turn my hobby into a self sustaining operation, maybe eventually a profitable one! Currently, I am working on developing my portraiture, so I am offering a 100 % discount on shooting fees for victims (er volunteers) interested in a photo shoot. My website is at www.briandorion.photo. It is currently in the process of being updated. I can be reached at brian@briandorion.photo
